RESEARCH CENTERS

Center for Research in Criminology (Director), IUP Dept. of Criminology; August 2004 – April 2008
Center that seeks to: conduct and promote scholarly research in criminology and criminal justice; sponsor research; establish relations with other institutions and agencies at the local, state, national, and international levels; attract scholars for residency programs; act as a resource center; act as a clearinghouse for proposals and information; provide technical assistance; obtain external funding; and engage in any other research activities that relate to the study of crime.

Pine Grove Center, IUP Dept. of Criminology; Summer 1999 – Summer 2002
Collaborative evaluation project focused on the State Correctional Institute at Pine Grove (a state prison for violent youthful offenders). Research focused on: (a) Contextual Analysis (social, policy, legislative, and agency contexts), (b) Process Evaluation (identify goals and expectations; complete program, educational, mental health, and vocational descriptions), and (c) Impact Assessment (assess adaptations of Pine Grove inmates to life in the facility and other subsequent prisons; assess success of Pine Grove inmates released into the community).

The Center for Juvenile Justice Training and Research, Shippensburg, PA; Summer, 1996
Collaborative research project focused on the transfer of juvenile offenders to adult criminal court in Pennsylvania. Personally responsible for developing the data collection instrument used in the study. Also assisted with the collection, coding, and preliminary analysis of data and performed various problem-solving functions.
